

Welcome to the Arise® Platform!

How to Enroll in a Client Program

The Arise® Platform provides customer support businesses with the ability to allow their agents to work from home providing customer support, sales and/or technical support services for Fortune 1000 or larger companies.

Among other things, users of the Arise® Platform have the flexibility to schedule service times to meet personal needs.

However, before you start servicing client programs through the Arise® Platform, you should do your research to ensure you select the program that best fits your needs and schedule.

This guide provides the following information:

Enrollment Process FAQs

What is an “Opportunity Announcement”?

An Opportunity Announcement (OA) is a document that contains all the information you need to determine if you, or your agents, would like to provide services for a particular client program. Details about the call types, additional equipment requirements, service revenue*, certification course schedules and certification requirements are in this document.

It is critical that you read the Opportunity Announcements thoroughly before expressing interest in a client program.

What Does It Mean to “Express Interest”?

Expressing interest in a client program is the first step to enrolling. When you visit the Portal, and there is something that interests you – click Get Started. At this time, you are indicating you want to be notified of next steps – it does NOT mean that you have enrolled in the course or been selected for the client program.

What Does It Mean to “Enroll” and How Do I Know I’ve Done it?

Enrolling means you have expressed interest, received instructions on next steps, submitted to a background check, taken any additional assessments, met any other criteria for the certification course.

Am I Automatically Enrolled in a Client Certification Course When I Select It?

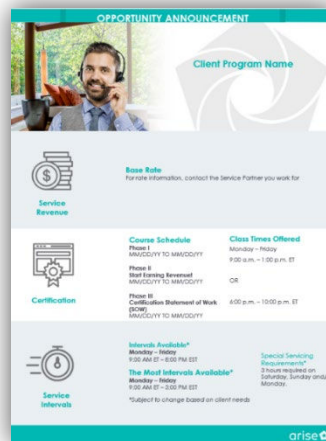

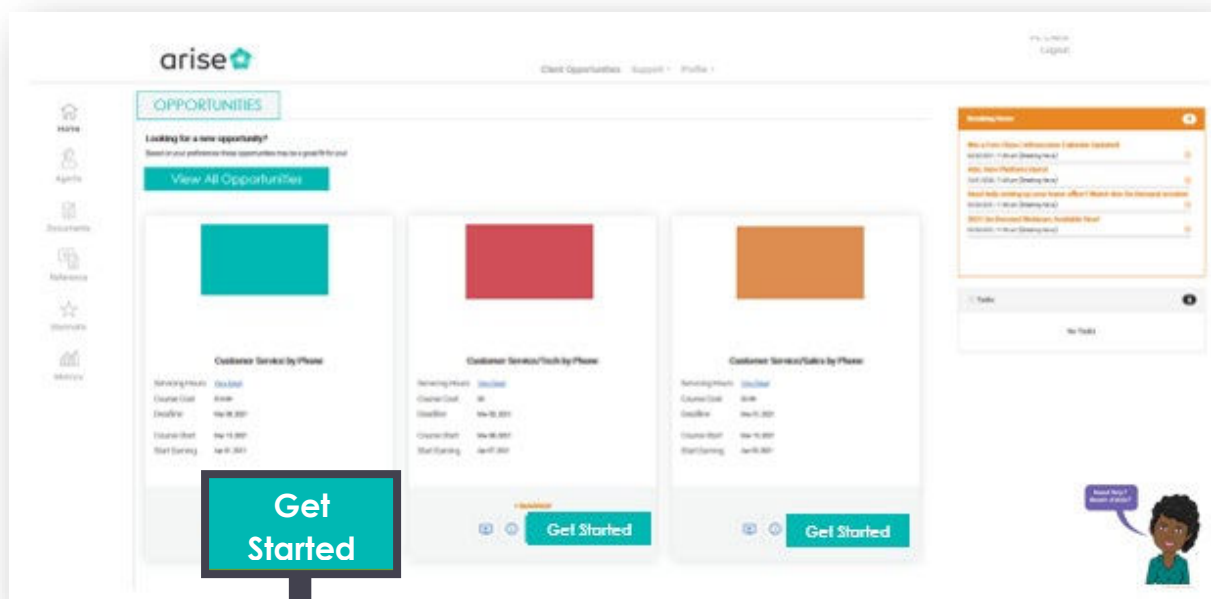

Client programs are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. You may have to take a series of assessments, including a voice assessment, for phone support programs, and submit to a background check. Finally, you must pass the course in order to service a program.

*Service revenue details can only be viewed by the owner of the customer support business, not agents.

Additional Information

All new users of the Arise® Platform will be asked to submit an Affidavit of Identification. Agents cannot certify to service a client program for their customer support business if the affidavit is not received by the due date. Please see the Opportunity Announcement for all the details regarding submitting the affidavit.

Users of the Arise® Platform will also be asked to submit a background check, for security purposes upon enrolling in a client program. Some client programs may also require a drug test. Please see the Opportunity Announcement for all the details.

New users of the Arise® Platform are invited to attend a Welcome Infosession. The sessions are offered several times each month and provide valuable information to guide you through the process of using the platform resources and where you can go for help. Attending a session allows you the best opportunity to learn what is needed for your customer support business to be successful.

Login to your Arise Portal to view the available client programs. You will also receive emails about specific client programs that are available with links to the "Opportunity Announcement".

- Each Opportunity Announcement includes the details needed to decide if a client program is a good fit for you, your business and/or your agents.
- When reviewing the announcements, pay close attention to all of the requirements for the course and servicing the client program; make sure you can fulfill those requirements before committing.

Note: You have 24 hours to process and complete enrollment for a course or you will be canceled from the course and opportunity and will have to repeat the enrollment process once again. Please note that certification courses are filled on a first-come, first-serve basis and may fill at any given time. Your seat in the course is not secure until you have fully enrolled in the course.
